Board of Education Updates on Teacher Contract Negotiations

Mediations Overview

The Community Consolidated School District 181 Board of Education will provide updates on the progress toward a new contract with the teaching staff so that the community will be informed in a timely fashion. The first update was provided at the August 11, 2008, Board of Education meeting and is now posted on the district's website at www.d181.org.

In addition, the Board has posted the current teachers' contract on the website.
